INDIGO LIVING LIMITED ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION OF CEO TRACY FITZPATRICK

(FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: HONG KONG / 30 JUNE, 2021) Indigo Living Limited announces that Tracy Fitzpatrick will step down in her capacity as Chief Executive Officer, and from her roles as Compliance Officer, Executive Director, a member of the Nomination Committee of Pacific Legend Group Limited and all directorships of its subsidiaries, and as Director on the PLG Board. Her resignation will be effective from 1st July, 2021 and John McLennan, current Executive Chairman and Founder of Indigo Living will take over as acting Chief Executive Officer.

John McLennan said, “ I will be very sorry to see Tracy go, she has been an integral part of the indigo family and the growth of the business over the last 16 years, I wish her well in her future endeavors.”

On stepping down, Tracy said, “ This has been an extremely difficult decision for me as I have put my heart and soul into this business . However, with Covid-19 the separation from my family and home country has also made me think long and hard about where I need to be. Although I have called Hong Kong home for the past 24 years, I intend to start making my way back to New Zealand.”

Tracy was appointed CEO in November 2016 after 11 successful years working with the Group as Chief Operating Officer. In her role as Chief Executive Officer she jointly determined the company’s overall strategic goals and handled the implementation, execution of such strategies, as well as oversaw the Company’s day-to-day operations across Hong Kong, China, and the Middle East.
